Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Richard Carney has exhibited that dedication to duty by being employed with JC Penney for forty-three years; and,

WHEREAS, Richard Carney was first employed with JC Penney in 1947 in Iowa, then he moved on to New York and, in 1976, Richard became manager of the JC Penney store in the Empire Mall in Sioux Falls, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, In 1953, Richard served his country by entering the Army and served two years, along with a stint in Korea; and,

WHEREAS, Richard has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Richard is a devoted husband to his wife, Phyllis, and a good father to their son, Tim; and,

WHEREAS, On April 7, Richard Carney will be honored by his friends and co-workers, and it is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this special South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. NICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 7, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends, co-workers and relatives in wishing him good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. NICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
